Historical Origins

The tradition of issuing daily Hukam Namas traces its roots back to the time of the Sikh Gurus. Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of Sikhism, emphasized the importance of listening to the divine voice within. He instructed his followers to open the Sri Guru Granth Sahib at random and read the first lines that appeared on the left-hand page. This practice, known as "opening the Hukam," became a daily ritual for Sikhs, providing a direct connection to the wisdom of the Gurus.
