The novel tells the story of a young woman named Sita who is forced to marry a man she does not love. She is unhappy in her marriage, but she is afraid to leave her husband because she does not want to bring shame on her family. One day, Sita meets a man named Rama who is kind and compassionate. Rama falls in love with Sita, and she eventually falls in love with him as well. However, their love is forbidden, and they must keep it a secret.

Sita and Rama's love is tested by many challenges. They are forced to endure separation, poverty, and even death. However, their love for each other never wavers. In the end, Sita and Rama are reunited, and they live happily ever after.

Hitasiksa Chatrisi is a story about the power of love. It is a story about how love can overcome all obstacles, even death itself. It is a story that will make you believe in the power of love and the possibility of redemption.
